

Office of County Commissioners
December 5, 2022
Gillette, WY

Directors Workshop

The Campbell County Board of Commissioners met for a Directors Workshop, Monday, December 5, 2022, at 1:30 PM.

Present were Rusty Bell, Colleen Faber, Bob Maul, Don Hamm, Del Shelstad, Commissioners; Susan F. Saunders, County Clerk; Leslie Perkins, Community & Government Relations Coordinator; Matt Olsen, Public Works Director; Brand Elder, HR Executive Director, Kyle Ferris, Deputy County Attorney, Nathan Henkes County Attorney, Kelly Wallem Office Manager, David King Emergency Management Coordinator, JR Fox, Fire Department, Sean Brown, City Attorney, Aaron Lyles, Cam-Plex Executive Director, and Denton Knapp, Commissioners Executive Director.

Board liaison reports were given.

Brandy Elder discussed evaluations for the Directors that report to the Commissioners, benefit enrollment and creating a hiring process.

Matt Olsen discussed the Hayden Property access, Fire Departments Property and the Camporee Event, the Fire Departments need of moving the training facility, Jockey Club House at Cam-Plex, Cam-Plex Park land transfer and the funding agreement for Bishop Road.

The Commissioners held a workshop with PFM Asset Management.

A workshop was held with the Gillette Community College District.

Commissioner Bell moved to enter into an Executive Session for Pending Litigation. Commissioner Hamm seconded the motion. All Voted – Aye. Carried.

The Board reconvened into the Directors Meeting at 5:30 PM.

There being no further business to come before the Commissioners, the meeting was adjourned at 5:30 PM.

Susan F. Saunders, County Clerk
Board of County Commissioners

Del Shelstad, Chairman
Board of County Commissioners